FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 13, 1859.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favora-ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the ombination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become nembers of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Director and believe, that, by prodence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this ompany a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States.

All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Computy. DIRECTORS: T. B. Robertson. 28 N. Water-st., Alexandria. Edward Sangster, prices salicited, and promptly Dr. R. INDEN WHISKEY .- This WHISKEY is I made in the old fashioned copper still, by ble distillation, just beyond the summit of the Blue Ridge, in Warran county, Va., near the line of Fan-quier, where the softness and purity of the mountain spring water, and the quality of the rye, constitute important elements in making the Whiskey for which this locality has been long celebrated. It ie perfectly pure, beyond all doubt, being made exclusively of rye, hops, and barley-malt, with the atmost care. The quantity made is limited, and bought principally for private use, by gentlemen connoissieurs in the surrounding counties, who are critically nice in laying by a stock for improvement. A small consignment has lately been made to MARSHALL & WARD, of Alexandria; oritean be procured direct, through correspondence with DR. FISHER, of Linden, Warren County, Va.

ACHMED AND HIS MARE. An old Arabian tale the truth conveys, That honor's passion avarice outweighs Brave Achined owned a mare of wondrous speed; He prized her much above his wife or creed: And, lest some one should steal that precious mare, He guarded her with unremitting care. He tied her every night before his tent; The fastening cord then round his pillow went When all in slumber lay, the robber crept, Unlowed the cord, and on the courser leapt.

"Wake up!" he cries, "'tis I, the thief, who call, See now if she in flight is chief of all! Mount Achmed and his tribe in wrath and shame, And chase him as a tempest chases fisme. Hot Achmed nearly to the robber came, When thus he thought-"My mare will lose her fame."

"If I o'ertake her, she is then outrun;
But if I reach her not, I am undone." "Oh, better she were stolen before my face, Than have her vanquished in this desperate race! One secret sign his mare was taught to heed, Whenever she must try her utmost speed. He to the robber screamed, "Quick, pinch her ear! The sign she felt with answering love and fear.
As, like a level thunderbolt she flew;
All chase was vain the vexed pursuers knew.
Betore this self-betrayal, blank surprise Fill Achmed's comrades, and their wondering cries Demand, "How shall thy toolish act be named?"

NUMBER ONE.

One hour lost in the morning, lying in bed, will put back all the business of the day. One hour vained by rising early is worth one month in a year. One hole in the fence will cost ten times as much as it will to fix it at once. One diseased sheep will spoil a flock. One unruly animal will teach all others in company bad tricks; and the Bible says, One sinner destroyeth much good.

One drunkard will keep a family poor and make them miserable. One wife that is always telling how fine her neighbor dresses, and how little she can get, will look pleasanter if she talks about something else.

One husband that is penurious or lazy, and deprives his family of necessary comforts, such as their neighbors enjoy, is not as desirable a husband as he ought to be. One good newspaper is one good thing in every family, and-One who don't take a good paper, and pay tor it, is an unworthy citizen, and disregards the best interests of his family.

AN IMPOSTOR .- A New York doctor calling himself Boswell, and a lineal descendant Dr. Johnston's biographer, but whose real name is suspected by the Tribune to be Smith or Snooks, is advertising a new and wonderderful elixir, extracted from an herb, which grows in a small valley in Persia, and whose cultivation is kept in a profound secret from the priesthood. It rejoicies in the classic and cuphonious application of "The Agapanthropoi," and possesses the remarkable pro perty of being an infallible love inspirer. Three drops of this medicine will convert the strongest antipathy into the most violent affections. It is confidently predicted that its general use will transform the whole race of book, new or old, now in print; and acknowledged by historians and literary men to be the most combring all bachelors to the untimely end of marriage, and entirely destroy the pich of Mr. Weller's sage quotation:-" reason. Sammy, that there's always so many more viders than single vimmen? CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purcha WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to themselves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.

Our new establishment, Gibsonton Mills, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facilities for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain.

Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words GIBSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIB sos, Soss & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or persone who may hereafter copy or use our Brands.
